23/08/01 Congratulations: you have won our Certified Site Award

Military World is pleased to announce that your website has been reviewed and you have won our Certified Site Award. Sites are judged on content, functionality, graphics and usefulness to the general public. We spend a lot of time reviewing sites and not all make the grade.

You have done a great job, keep up the good work!

Awarded to the FESR Website 23rd August 2001
